Counsel,

Thank you for your letter. As an initial matter, we disagree Judge Fischer's Order requires the removal of any sign. Certainly the Order does not state as much. At best, then, there is an ambiguity.

Additionally, we do not believe that any signs referencing LAMC 56.11(3)(i) have been posted since the Order issued. The signs referenced in your letter are not the current signs LASAN has been posting. Copies of the current signs, which contain no reference to bulky items, are attached for your reference.

Finally, though not clearly required by the Court's order, LASAN will be placing overlays on top of some 3,106 signs at 797 locations. Like the current signs, the overlays have no references to bulky items or LAMC 56.11(3)(i). Images of these are also attached for your reference.

I trust this addresses the issues you raise, but please advise if it does not. Thank you.
